I. Call to Order

Chair Burlage called the meeting to order at 4:00 pm on Wednesday, September 27, 2017.

II. ISACC February Conference

Owens reported that two presenters, Woody Marshall and Alex McDonald, from Intermountain Donor Services have requested time on the agenda in February.

The Education Committee has decided that the Education Committee will meet on Sunday, February 4 from 4-5 pm and the Board of Directors will meet from 5-6 pm. The conference will begin on Monday, February 5 at 8 am and go through 5 pm that day, picking back up on Tuesday, February 6 from 8 am 12 pm.

III. Future Conferences

The Education Committee discussed holding an ABMDI Masters Class in Salmon, Idaho from April 26-27, 2018. The committee will hold their next meeting in Salmon from November 11-12 to determine if Salmon is a good fit for the training.

IV. Future Speakers

The Education Committee will determine speakers after the test. Owens will send out the book for studying.

V. ABMDI Continuing Education Hours

Owens was able to get the ISACC Annual Conference approved for 12 ABMDI continuing education hours. She stated this was a difficult process and there was a lot involved in applying for the hours.

VI. ISACC Polo Shirts

The Education Committee decided they would like to have ISACC polos with the new logo on them. Mike Swain with IAC will work on an order form to get sizes and send it out to the members. The polos will be ready at the ISACC February Conference.

VII. 2018 IAC&ME Annual Training Symposium

The International Association of Coroners and Medical Examiners (IAC&ME) Annual Training Symposium will take place in Las Vegas, Nevada from July 22-26, 2018. The Education Committee decided they will pay for 10 coroners and 10 deputy coroners to attend. The committee will review the balance of the training fund to determine if they will add more attendees at a later date.
