

Mission Statement

The Idaho Association of County Treasurers provides an effective communication network and is a source of education for County Treasurers while promoting integrity, credibility and professionalism.