Election Day Tomorrow: Check Your Polling Place & Ballot

Boise, ID - Ada County Elections is encouraging voters to check their polling locations before heading to the polls on Election Day, November 8. Voters can find their polling locations and outlines of ballot questions using the Ada County Election’s online portal at https://www.sos.idaho.gov/elections.

Voters were assigned to polling locations based on their voter registration address earlier this year. The Ada County Clerk’s Office is encouraging voters to review their assigned polling location before Election Day to ensure they know where to vote.

“The number of voters assigned to each polling location varies,” said Beth Killeen, Ada County Clerk. “Voters can find their polling location and how to get there by visiting the Ada County Election’s online portal. It is also recommended that voters check their assigned polling location before Election Day.”

If you cannot find your polling location on the online portal, you can call the Ada County Election’s office at 208-448-2500 or visit their office at 440 W. State St., Suite 300, Boise, ID 83702.

“The election is important. It is important to vote,” said Killeen.

A total of 26,000 votes were cast in Ada County during early voting, which ended on October 29. Additionally, 18,730 absentee ballots have been returned to date, out of 24,000 mailed out.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Election Day. Absentee ballots must be postmarked by October 29. Active military personnel and certain other categories of voters may vote by absentee ballot even if they did not receive an absentee ballot.

For more information, visit the Ada County Election’s website at https://www.sos.idaho.gov/elections.
