III. Sept 27, 2024 ISACC nomination formal complaint from Sam Butikofer (Action) - Torey Danner, Bannock County, President

Sam Butikofer addressed the board about his concerns on how the election process went during the annual conference. He felt that the bylaws were violated and members acted unethical. Felt like the voices of the membership was silenced. He also felt that the board acted unprofessional and there is now a lack of trust. Felt like there was a lack of accountability.

It was felt that the ISACC Board should write an apology and step down from their positions and have an actual election/nomination process.

There was a disagreement about how the process actually happened and whether or not the Roberts Rules of order were followed. The association is still working on changes and trying to come up with solutions.

The president stated that the board will not be doing a re-election and will continue to work on trainings and the bylaws to prevent future issues. If there is no re-election at least maybe an apology letter should be written. It would go a long way to help mend some relationships.

The ISACC Board adjourned the meeting at 12:30 pm MT.
